

Let  $c$  be a real number. Prove that if one root of the equation

$$x^3 - \frac{3}{4}x + c = 0$$ is in the interval  $-1 \leq x \leq 1$ , then all of the roots are in  $-1 \leq x \leq 1$ .